Reviews

Here is the finest ebook i have got read until now. It really is simplistic but excitement within the 50 percent in the book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

SPEECH OF JUDGE CHAMBERS, ON THE JUDICIAL TENURE, IN THE MARYLAND CONVENTION, APRIL, 1851 (CLASSIC REPRINT) (PAPERBACK)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Judge Chambers, on the Judicial Tenure, in the Maryland Convention, April, 1851 Judge Chambers, after alluding to various statements made by Mr. Bowie, and several other gentlemen, in reference to the supposed state of public opinion on the subject of the Judiciary, in different parts of the Slate, proceeded to say: - Mr. President: - My solo purpose, in reviewing (hose allegations, is to show, that the argument of the important question, upon which we are called to act, should be based upon other grounds than such statements of opinion - that they, in fact, prove nothing. The gentleman, indeed, after alluding to them, admits this; and properly enough says, we ought to give tone to popular sentiment. We are here, not as the mere creatures of a particular party or class of men, to be driven against our convictions, by a supposed current of public sentiment running, in this direction, or in that. We are placed here, to perform high and solemn duties - duties which are to affect the interests, the security, the well-being of society, in all respects, and for all time. In discharging these duties, the most sacred obligations demand, that we exercise our grave and deliberate judgments. The responsibility we owe to the community cannot be met by adopting a course approved by others; if it be not commended to our own judgments, by a conviction of its propriety. My object then, in alluding to the remarks, I have noticed, is to express my humble opinion, that such considerations ought not to disturb the operation of our minds, in coming to conclusions, upon this subject. There are, in my view, far higher, greater,...
