All the of cers of the college have the right to enter the rooms and studies of the students at their pleasure, and it is their duty frequently to visit them. Chapter II. Of The President. 1. To the president is committed the general superintendence of the interests and reputation of the institution, which he is bound to promote and maintain by every exertion in his power. 2. He has a right to be present at the recitation of any class in the college, as often as he may see proper, and to conduct or hear the recitation, if he choose. 3. He will take such branches of instruction in the college, into his own hands, as he may judge that the number of other teachers in the institution and his own convenience render necessary and proper. 4. He is to see that prayers are made with the students morning and evening, and that public worship be celebrated with them on the Lord s Day: And he is also to give to the students a course of instruction on the evidences, principles and duties of the christian religion. 5. He is, ex-officio, president of the faculty when present with them, and also the administrator of their decisions in cases of discipline. 6. He is to preside at examinations and commencements, and to confer all degrees. Chapter III. Of The Vice President. 1. The vice-president is to conduct the studies of the youth in those branches of literature or science of which he is the professor. 2. He is to convene and preside in...
