This pleased her more than any of the others, because the peacock feather is sacred to the Chinese, and is used in their temples where they pray to the joss. The peacock s offering was a very large bunch of these brilliant feathers, to take to her mo chun, while it said in a queer, sharp voice, -- It matters not, my little one, how stormy is the weather; The joss will always care for those who have a peacock feather. Now for the last place, said Queen Bunny; and following the sound of a terrible screeching noise, they climbed a ladder into a tall tree, and there was a beautiful American eagle. It was not cross a bit, as eagles...
