By Antoon Krings

Blume. Hardcover. Condition: New. Antoon Krings (illustrator). 32 pages. Dimensions: 7.6in. x 7.6in. x 0.3in. Vibrant and humorous, these stories present curious creatures and their interesting garden adventures. Cecilia the Chickadee is none too pleased: with the arrival of spring, all of the other little birds in the garden have alighted on her fir tree and begun to sing and build their nests, causing a din in the process. To make matters worse, one day Cecilia opens her door only to discover that a baby bird has fallen from its nest. Cecilia looks around and around, but will she ever find the baby bird's mother? Vibrant and humorous, these stories present curious creatures and their interesting adventures that take place in her garden. This book can be well worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. It's been printed in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is merely right after I finished reading through this pdf by which basically changed me, modify the way I think.
