Adrina Green. Paperback. Condition: New. 130 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Some thoughts have a way of turning into nasty thieves that can rob one of calm and peace. The author discusses the benefits of being selective with thoughts. Offering the reader a profound collection of Christian-based wisdom and tips that have greatly helped others to restore their courage, deal more confidently with turmoil, and most importantly, enjoy the benefits of life-changing calm and peaceful choices. This book briefly touches on the Christian teaching concerning the impact of mans acquisition of the knowledge of good and evil, an information overload that remains an ongoing challenge for man to decipher. She discusses Jesus who once lived as a man with this same challenge and won a tremendous victory over Satan by staying united with God and holding fast to calm and peace in the face of tremendous turmoil. Calm and Peace is for the avid reader along with those who find reading a chore. It is fresh, and inspiring. It addresses the most relevant issues, and most importantly, it highlights the benefits of reconnecting with God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for those seeking renewed strength and vitality now. Although life is a challenge, attitude is always a choice. Author quote. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
