Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Fables and Rhymes AEsop and Mother Goose The nineteenth century has been a period of wonderful changes. Discoveries and inventions of vast importance have followed each other in rapid succession. Many things which a few years ago were enjoyed exclusively by the rich, are to-day common among the poor; but from none of the improved conditions of life is it possible for us to secure greater benefit than from the present accessibility of good books. In the fields of literature, once reserved for only a favored few, all men to-day meet on nearly the same plane and may share, at least in part, its treasures. Next to the alphabet, the invention of greatest value is that of printing. Certainly a large part of what is called an education - even the knowledge of facts, which is often mistaken for real education - is gained directly from books. In educating our children, It is then of the first importance to teach them to read, and with the opportunities for obtaining the best in literature constantly increasing...
