Not illustrated. 1858 Excerpt: .The horses ate all the hay, which the coachman gave them. The cat sat on the carpet behind the curtain. This boy promised to become a very clever man, because he gave such clever answers already in his earliest childhood. That lady gives her servants every New year s-day a very handsome present. He liked bread better than cake, and water better than wine or beer. Have you been sitting long on the shore? It seemed to me, to be getting (become) cold; we therefore walked faster, and have beeng sitting only a short time, in order to rest. Who is tallest, speaks best and helps most willingly? Frederick has eaten most, for he was most hungry. The officer promised his dying friend, to give his son a good education. We always read (Imp.) with pleasure useful books, but it is very natural, that we also...
