Dept. of Education, Office of Educational Research and Improvement, National Center for Education Statistics, 1996 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)43555645 Subject: Public schools -- United States -- Management -- Statistics. Excerpt: . . . Introduction Schools and Staffing Survey This report uses data from the 1990-91 Schools and Staffing Survey (SASS). Conducted by the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) of the U. S. Department of Education, SASS is the largest and most comprehensive dataset available on the organizational aspects of American schools. It has gathered a wide range of information on the characteristics, work, career plans, and attitudes of administrators and faculty and the characteristics of schools and districts across the country. This information was collected for both private and public schools. The 1990-91 SASS used a random sample of schools and staff stratified by state, sector, and school level. It is designed to provide national and state-level estimates for public schools and national and association-level estimates for private schools (see technical notes in Appendix E). Using the school as the unit of analysis...
