

James Whitcomb Riley - Neighborly Poems and Dialect Sketches: When I see a bird that walks like a duck and swims like a duck and quacks like a duck, I call that bird

By James Whitcomb Riley

Portable Poetry. Paperback. Condition: New. 72 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Poet and author James Whitcomb Riley was born on October 7th 1849 in Greenfield, Indiana. Better known as the Hoosier Poet for his work with regional dialects, and also as the Childrens Poet Riley was born into an influential and well off family. However his education was spotty but he was surrounded by creativity which was to stand him in good stead later in life. His early career was a series of low paid temporary jobs. After stints as a journalist and billboard proprietor he had the resources to dedicate more of his efforts to writing. Riley was prone to drink which was to affect his health and later his career but after a slow start and a lot of submissions he began to gain traction first in newspapers and then with the publication of his dialect poems Boone County Poems he came to national recognition. This propelled him to long term contracts to perform on speaking circuits. These were very successful but over the years his star waned. In 1888 he was too drunk to perform and the ensuing publicity made everything seem very bleak for a...
