Calvin After a cheating wife and a failed marriage, now I can live for myself. I walked away from that train wreck, leaving the lavish lifestyle of an oil tycoon billionaire far behind me. Don t get me wrong, I didn t walk away penniless. far from it, but returning to my roots as a rancher in Texas has set my country boy spirit free. Now, an honest day s work is done with my hands-not sitting in a boardroom. Finally, I m free from the havoc and pressure of city life, the high expectations-and a treacherous woman with no scruples. I love the clean Texan air and wide-open spaces, and although I miss the sensual touch of a good woman, God knows I m not looking for love anytime soon after my last encounter. Until now. Until Lainey blows into town and intrigue sets in for the smart, sassy city girl. I m playing it cool, just a regular cowboy now. But can she handle the truth when she discovers my past? Lainey You can take the girl out of...
