K. Fiulay hns received the honored distinction of second Vice-president of that Association during the present year; for several years past the serving as delegates to the American Pharmaceutical Association has fallen mostly on volunteers to serve, and none have fulfilled the duties and represented this body at their annual meetings more ably, than Mr. Fiulay. To this gentleman is due the thanks of this association for the interest he has taken and the aide manner in which he has performed his duties as a delegate to the above named association. We should feel greatly honored by the distinction this association has received at the hands of the Ameri cau Pharmaceutical Association, and 1 would suggest that a proper resolution be passed and forwarded to the permanent Secretary, Prof. Maisch, Philadelphia, as au acknowledgement of the...
