The best way would be for you to be released from him--that he gave you, immediately, a power of attorney; or that he himself made application for a guardian. Thus everything would be settled in a friendly way. Loes. Waving. Here comes Koen, again!--That s being lively!--He s a plucky boy, though, --a rare one! Koen. Springing from his b wyle. I ve got them again!--They re on the way back--they hadn t got far away from the house yet--Mrs. Hardendop. Thank heaven!--What a relief!--You did that cleverly, Koen. Coachman. At the gate. Here I be again, Ma am--with the kerridge.--Shall I drive up in front? Mrs. Hardendop. No!--Stay in the lane, please--let them step out.--Here, driver! Gives him a tip. It s well you drove no faster. Coachman. The...
