

Four Novels of the 1970s

By Elmore Leonard

The Library of America. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Four Novels of the 1970s, Elmore Leonard, The Library of America inaugurates its Elmore Leonard edition with four funny, street-smart early masterpieces, gathered in one volume for the first time: Blending gritty toughness and unpredictable violence with wild humor and an uncanny ear for the rhythms of ordinary speech, Elmore Leonard (1925-2013) was the most widely and enthusiastically admired crime novelist of his time. His genius for scene and dialogue led "Time" magazine to describe him as a Dickens of Detroit, and "Newsweek" called him the best American writer of crime alive, possibly the best we've ever had. Now The Library of America inaugurates a three-volume edition of Leonard's greatest work, prepared in consultation with the author shortly before his death and edited by his long-time researcher Gregg Sutter. The four novels collected in this first volume re-invented the American crime novel and cemented Leonard's reputation. All are set in his hometown Detroit, a hard-working, shot-and-a-beer kind of place whose lawless underside becomes a stage for an unforgettable cast of rogues, con artists, and psychopaths. "Fifty-Two Pickup" (1974), fast and sharply written, is...
